

Ken Burns Talks Jackie Robinson

Wednesday, April 6, 2016

9:30 – 10:00 a.m. EDT

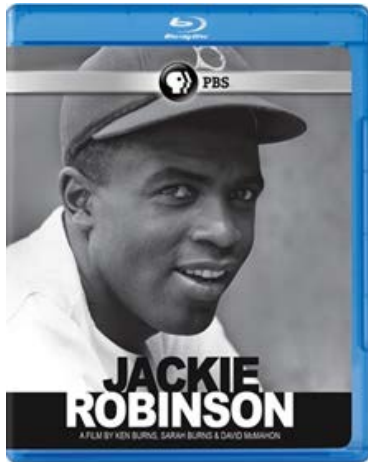

Jackie Robinson

Good Morning!

Ken Burns

Jackie Robinson

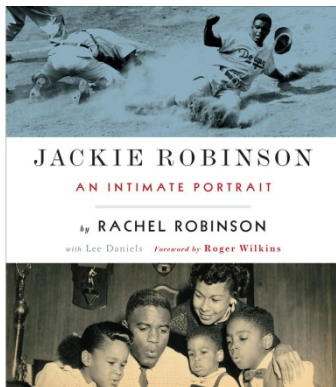

Jackie Robinson examines the life and times of Jack Roosevelt Robinson, who in 1947 lifted an entire race, and nation, on his shoulders when he crossed baseball's color line.

Broadcast Schedule

- PBS National Broadcast, Monday, April 11 and Tuesday, April 12

DVD and Blu-ray

- Day & Date release Tuesday, April 12, timed to Jackie Robinson Day, on Friday, April 15
- Narrated by Keith David (The War), with Jamie Foxx as the voice of Jackie Robinson. Music by Wynton Marsalis.
- Many celebrity and dignitary interviews!
- HV DVD and BD; $24.99/$29.99
- UPC #'s: 841887027557 / 841887027564
- 240 minutes

Book

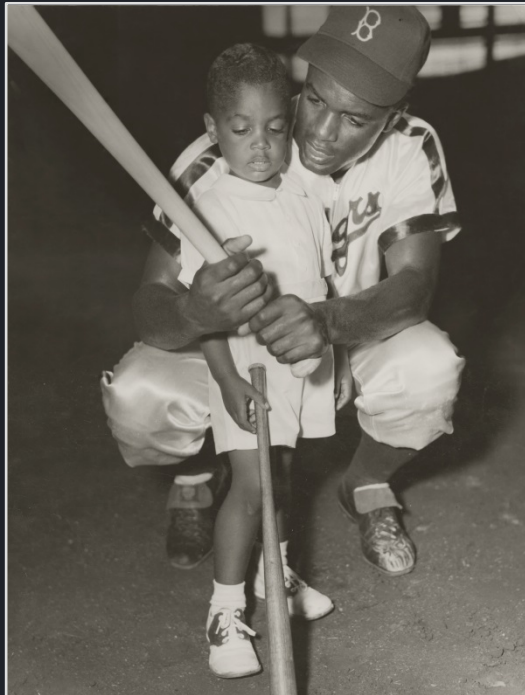

- Re-released in 2014
- ISBN: 9781419712142

Jackie Robinson and Rachel Isum
on their first date

Jackie and Rachel Robinson with their children
Jackie Jr., David, and Sharon

Jackie gives young Jackie Jr. tips on how to hold a baseball bat. Circa 1950

Jackie Robinson is among 35,000 demonstrators for Civil Rights on the Eve of the 1964 Republican National Convention in San Francisco

Thank you for joining us!

Please email us with your questions or feedback on today's webinar at webinars@baker-taylor.com.

We will archive this webinar on our webinars site:
<http://webinars.baker-taylor.com>

Please bookmark our dedicated Ken Burns site:
<http://kenburns.site.baker-taylor.com/>